
minimum-cost seam
straight cut at the midpoint
(a) the gap where the seam avoids the most ink rows 1550–1596: the seam crosses 1 ink px, a straight cut crosses 64
columns 0–612
columns 612–1224
10 rows clear of the straight cut
(b) the local cost in that gap, pale is cheap
$C(y, x) = 4\widetilde{M} + 0.012\,((y - y_m)/h_g)^2$
page row 1550
1575
2.5
0.0
0
200
400
600
800
1000
1200
(c) the gap that departs furthest from a straight cut rows 1265–1314: the seam crosses 0 ink px, a straight cut crosses 44
columns 0–612
columns 612–1224
(d) the same cost field for the second gap
page row
1275
1300
4
2
column of the half-resolution working image